

Gorilla's Half Term Bingo!

Monday (Bank Holiday)

Learn a new skill!

Is there something you've always wanted to try but never had the time? Well today is the day to have a go! How about: learning to juggle, painting your nails, skipping, doing a cartwheel, meditating, going for a 3K run, making jewellery? Let me know what you did!

Tuesday

Help around the house!

Choose a chore, to complete today, that will help your family and give you a new skill! Here are some examples: Hoover your room, mow the lawn, wash the car, empty the dishwasher, weed the garden, tidy your room- the list is endless!

Wednesday

Enjoy nature!

Go for a nature walk! Take pictures of plants and animals as you go. When home, you could make a scrap book of what you saw and research the names of the animals and plants you spotted.

Thursday

Save our oceans!

Collect plastic before it gets thrown away in your home and instead make something out of it! Here are some weird and wonderful examples:

Friday

Get cooking!

Make dinner for your family (or if that's too ambitious some cake will do!). How many courses will you cook? What will you need? How will you present your dishes? Send me a photo of your end product!
